

CONSTITUTION REVIEW COMMITTEE (CRC)

VIEWS OF THE LIBERIAN PEOPLE AS EXPRESSED DURING THE 73 ELECTORAL DISTRICTS AND DIASPORA CONSULTATIONS.

BACKGROUND/INTRODUCTION

Constitution reform is a key and strategic part of Liberia's post-conflict recovery agenda which places emphasis on inclusive governance and the rule of law. This was manifested by the Administration of Madam Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf when she established the Constitution Review Committee in August, 2012.

The Constitution Review Committee (CRC) has the mandate to review Liberia's current Constitution (1986) through wide-spread public participation and to develop proposals from inputs (views, suggestions and recommendations) generated from the public interactions and discourses as the basis constitutional for amendments.

In furtherance of the Committee's mandate to ensure maximum citizens participation, the Committee determined that the guiding principle for the review process would be Bottoms up Approach to gather views and suggestions from the citizenry to derive and formulate proposals and recommendations to amend the Constitution of Liberia.

The Committee also determined and resolved to conduct the review of the Constitution on critical milestones that would ensure legitimacy and confidence in of the outcome of the Review Process. The milestones adopted are:

- a) Organization and capacity building
- b) Public awareness on the provisions of the 1986 Constitution
- c) Civic Education
- d) Public Consultation
- e) Collating and Analysis of views/suggestions
- f) National Constitution Conference
- g) Presentation of Proposed amendments
- h) Legislative Action
- i) Publication of Gazette on Legislative approved Constitutional amendments and Public Education
- j) Referendum
- k) Final Report

The Committee commenced its work by holding organizational and introductory meetings with stakeholders, role players, Partners and Donors.

The Committee also engaged the National Legislature on the process and has over time continued the engagement with this august body by regular updates on the process.

CRC embarked on its Public Awareness Campaign through community outreach, distribution of copies of the 1886 Constitution, deployment of suggestion boxes, radio programs on (Liberia Broadcasting System (LBS), Liberia Women Democracy Radio (LWDR) and UNMIL Radio). The Committee also established a website (www.crc.gov.lr), a facebook page (www.facebook.com/liberiaconstitutionreviewcommittee), Email addresses (crc20132015liberia@gmail.com, constitutionliberia@yahoo.com) and 2 toll-free cell phone lines (1986- on Lonestar Cell MTN and Novafone) as well as Cellcom 0776305715 (not toll-free) to enable the citizens to call CRC and express their views about the constitution and the review process. During this awareness campaign, citizens began expressing their views and making suggestions on what they want in their constitution.

While this awareness was being conducted, CRC also held consultative meetings with Political Parties, Civil Society Organizations, Traditional Leaders and Chiefs in 2013.

In 2014, consultative meetings were also held with Women Organizations, Persons with Disabilities, Youths, and other government agencies with reform mandate which have constitutional implications.

These activities preceded the official launch of Civic Education by the Honorable Speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. J. Alex Tyler in February 2014.

In March 2014, CRC nationwide Public Consultations commenced.

The Committee conducted consultations in all of the 73 electoral districts in Liberia. Members of the Committee also conducted consultations with Liberians in the Diaspora in Ghana and the United States of America.

The formal consultations ended in May and the informal aspect continued in the counties. CRC commenced the sorting, collating and analysis of the views from June, as Committee members continued consultations in the Diaspora and views from within Liberia continued to come in. Unfortunately, the ebola outbreak intensified in the country in July and the government of Liberia declared a "State of Emergency". This declaration created/generated immense debate among Liberians on its constitutional implications and ramifications on the rights of citizens. Consequently, citizens began requesting copies of the Constitution from the Committee and also additional views from the public came in. Notwithstanding, CRC has determined that October 31 is the deadline for the receipt of views.

This document is a preliminary summary of views of Liberians expressed in each of the 73 electoral districts, consultative meetings with Political Parties, Civil Society Organizations, Women Organizations, Traditional Leaders and Chiefs, Persons with Disabilities, and Liberians in the Diaspora. Also included is a document conveying views of the Independent National Commission on Human Rights in collaboration with Civil Society Organizations.

Also contained in this preliminary summary is the initial analysis of views of expressed by the citizens on Liberia in the 73 electoral districts.

- XI. That all persons with disabilities should obtained a National Social Security ID Card;
- XII. That Disability be defined in the revised Constitution.

e. INDEPENDENT NATIONAL COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (INCHR) and CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATION CSOs

- I. Bill of Rights: INCHR and CSOs recommend that all recommendations relating to human rights be included as one chapter entitled “Bill of Rights” which may be taken as one separate proposal for the purpose of referendum.
- II. Autonomous Public Commissions: INCHR and CSOs recommend that the Independent National Commission on Human Rights (INCHR) and Liberia Anti-Corruption Commission (LACC) be added to Autonomous Public Commissions as stated in chapter 10, Article 89 of the Constitution.
- III. Abolishment of Death Penalty: INCHR and CSOs view the death penalty as an excessive punishment, which contravenes Article 21 d (ii) of the Liberian Constitution. We recommend that the death penalty be abolished.
- IV. The Right to Speedy Trial: Article 20 (a) of the Constitution stipulates, “Justice shall be done without sale, denial or delay.” INCHR and CSOs recommend that it be stipulated in the Constitution that no criminal trial should last longer than one year after the commencement, or remain on the Supreme Court docket for more than two terms of Court. Such a delay should be a ground for dismissal “for failure to proceed” upon motion by the defense or by the court. In such a proceeding, the defendant shall be entitled to monetary compensation payable by the Government. The right to equality before the law, the right to presumption of innocence and the right to a fair trial in all circumstances, including crisis situation and public emergencies, should be a provision of the Constitution.
- V. Freedom of Expression: Article 15 of the Constitution of Liberia provides for the freedom of expression, being fully responsible for the abuse thereof. INCHR and CSOs recommend that there be a reasonable limit in the amount of civil damages awarded in libel cases.
- VI. Independent National Judiciary Inquiry Commission: INCHR and CSOs recommend that there be established an autonomous public commission to be known as Independent National Judiciary Inquiry Commission with the following functions:
 - Receive and investigate complaints against judges and magistrates and submit findings and recommendations to the Supreme Court for appropriate action. Findings from the Commission are appealable to the Supreme Court. If impeachment is recommended and confirmed by the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice should then forward the impeachment recommendation to the President who will in turn forward same to the House of Representatives.
 - The Commission shall also investigate allegations or complaints brought before it involving Justices of the Supreme Court on bribery and any other form of corruption and human rights violation charges. Final findings against a Justice and Justices are appealable to the Supreme Court. If impeachment is recommended and confirmed by the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice then forwards the impeachment recommendation to the President who will in turn forward the same to the House of Representatives. If the subject of the impeachment is the Chief Justice, the next Justice in line will then forward the impeachment recommendation to the President who will in turn forward same to the House of Representatives.

- VII. Impunity: Article 97 of the Constitution has an immunity clause for action by People’s Redemption Council (PRC) and actions to bring about change of Government on 12 April 1980. This clause perpetuates impunity and is not compatible with International human rights standards. INCHR and CSOs strongly recommend that Article 97 of the Constitution be removed.
- VIII. Gender Affirmative Action: INCHR and CSOs recommend that in order to enhance gender equity and participation in the governance of the State, no sex will exceed 60% in positions of appointment by the President.
- IX. Gender: INCHR and CSOs recommend that the pronoun ‘he’ in the constitution for positions such as the presidency of any function should be rewritten as ‘he or she’. See Article 57 for example.
- X. Rights of Persons with Disability: INCHR and CSOs recommend the expansion of article 11 to include sub-section ‘d,’ to put more emphasis on the rights of persons with disabilities. The provision should ensure that rights of persons with disability are fully in line with the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), to which Liberia is signatory; and that they are not discriminated against in any form and manner on ground of their disabilities.
- XI. Right to healthy Environment: INCHR and CSOs recommend inclusion of the right to environment as follows: “Everyone has the right to environment that is not harmful to their health or well-being; and to have the environment protected, for the benefit of present and future generations, through reasonable legislative and other measures that will: a) prevent pollution and ecological degradation; b) promote conservation; and c) secure ecologically sustainable development and use of natural resources while promoting inclusive economic and social development.”
- XII. Right to Housing: We recommend that appropriate provisions be added in the Constitution to speak to the issue of access to adequate housing for all Liberians, backed by the provision that no person shall be evicted from his/her home without a just compensation, nor have home demolished, without the due process of law before a competent judicial tribunal; deliberation of all relevant circumstances, and that no legislation may permit arbitrary evictions.
- XIII. Right to Work: INCHR and CSOs recommend the expansion of Article 18 to include the following details: All; Liberians citizens shall equal opportunity for work and employment regardless of sex, creed, religious background, physical condition, place of origin or political affiliation, and shall be entitled to equal pay for equal work. They shall enjoy equal access to just and favorable conditions of work, the right to equal treatment in the workplace, to fair wages and equal remuneration for work of equal value, the right to standard setting of a minimum wage, safe and healthy working conditions, protection against wage withholding, as well as the right to form and join trade unions, the right to strike and the right to social security.

- XIV. Right to Water and Sanitation: INCHR and CSOs strongly recommend the provision of the right to water and sanitation in the Constitution; that reasonable legislations and other measures shall be taken by the State to ensure that every person has access to sufficient water of good quality, as well as systems for the proper management and disposal of waste.
- XV. Right to Food: The right to food is an essential component of the right to adequate standard of living, Article 11 of the ICESR. INCHR and CSOs strongly recommend the inclusion of a provision on the right to food in the Constitution.
- XVI. Right to Health: INCHR and CSOs recommend a comprehensive provision to be added in the Constitution for the protection of the right health. A further important aspect is the right to participation of the population in all health-related decision making at the community and national levels.
- XVII. Right to Education: INCHR and CSOs recommend that article 6 of the Constitution be revised in line with ICESCR, to include the following: That Primary Education be free and compulsory; that secondary education, including technical and vocational secondary education, shall be made generally available and accessible to all; that higher education shall be made equally accessible to all on the basis of capacity.
- XVIII. Equal Access & Equitable Distribution of Proceeds from Natural Resources: INCHR and CSOs of Liberia recommend that proceeds gotten from the natural resources be shared with all counties to be applied to their respective local economic and social development projects, with the full and meaningful participation of indigenous and local communities in the decisions making processes that directly affect their economic livelihoods and wellbeing; that reasonable portion or 15% percentage of the proceeds from natural resources also be shared with the local community where the resources are discovered and 5% for the individual(s) who own the property.
- XIX. Additional Recommendation (Access to Final Justice): INCHR and CSOs recommend that the constitutional right to an appeal from final judgment exercised by all parties, now denied the Republic of Liberia in criminal cases in this jurisdiction by statute, be restored to the Republic of Liberia.
- XX. Additional Recommendation (Removal of the President): INCHR and CSOs recommend that in addition to the grounds enumerated in the Constitution, the following grounds for removal of the President be added: a) mismanagement of natural resources; b) involvement or complicity in human rights violation.

- XXI. Child Right to Parental Support, Care and Guidance: Any parent who neglects or fails to perform his/her duties to the child must be prosecuted for child endangerment.
- XXII. Violence Against Women: The Constitution must specifically prohibit violence against women and children.
- XXIII. Ritualistic Killing: The Constitution must specifically speak against ritualistic killing.
- XXIV. Constitutional Denial of Violent Person: The Constitution must prohibit the election or appointment of any person who has a history, past or present, of engaging in human rights violations or insurrection against the Republic of Liberia or violent overthrow of constituted authority.
- XXV. The Constitution must Prohibit Spousal abuse: Any man or woman who inflicts mental or physical abuse on his or her spouse shall be held criminally and civilly liable for the abuse.

3. Dual Citizenship: Disadvantages of Dual Citizenship to Liberia

- Legal transaction, misconduct, and illegal activities are some of the crimes for which different countries have their set of laws. If a dual citizen is found to be involved in such crimes, it's uncertain with which laws he should be prosecuted. This legal uncertainty may be magnified in serious crimes and frauds committed by a dual citizen
- It increases capital flow: capital flow – is an economic term describing capital flowing out of a particular economy
- Another issue is whether the state should grant them equal rights in the issues concerning political and social cases of the country. It's a fact that people should feel bonding for a particular community, unless they are allowed to freely and constructively participate in issues related to that nation.
- Conclusion: We from team three (3) with representation from all of the 15 counties say NO to Dual Citizenship in Liberia. We thank you all!!!
